

you ashamed? Aurelia Newmuggin couldn't skate backward, so,—not even with Augustus Silverchips holding her hands. Did you learn on parlor skates?—Look at those awful ribbons. How dreadful it is that vulgar people will skate? There's no skating in Mexico, is there?—I read that ice is four shillings a pound there,—or was it in China? Do you think that the French will let it?—Mexico, not the ice—impudent!—Don't Oh! my!—there's aunt's carriage on the bank, isn't it a pity aunt's too old and stout to skate? and has no children to skate for her; no, not even on parlor skates! But then, four hundred thousand dollars!—O, don't I love my aunt!

Just to think!—the four McFlairance girls,—don't they look Dutch!—such complexions! ankles?—don't see any—nor waists. Follow them for safety—no danger where they pass waists. Is my hair tumbled,—really?—Don't!

NEW YORK CLIPPER.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1864.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

SOUTH PITTSBURGH.—1. Barry Sullivan was in Australia at last accounts. 2. Horton Rhy is the professional name of the "young lord" who is supposed to have made a bet that he would make a certain amount of money in a given time by playing in this country. The whole thing was a "dead beat," the "young lord" included.

A READER, West Chester, Pa.—1. In playing billiards it by no means follows, after a change of balls, by accident or otherwise, that each player should take his opponent's score or "string;" on the contrary, "it can't be did." 2. The forfeiture for a miss is one point.

SUBSCRIBER, Hartford.—Four men are shaking dice for a watch. A throws first, and gets 38, and bets B that 38 wins the watch. B, C, and D each throw 38. Who wins the bet, A or B?.... A wins, as 38 takes the watch, although the parties must throw on the ties.

M. R. S., Jackson, Mich.—At the time of the taking of the last census, viz., in 1860, the population of Chicago was 109,260, Cincinnati, 161,044, St. Louis, 160,773. All these cities have no doubt largely increased since then, Chicago in particular.

HENRY HUGHES, 1st Md. Cav., St. Louis, Mo.—The lady referred to is the widow of the party who kept the Rock Cottage, where Heenan trained for his first fight. Mr. Hughes died suddenly. A letter addressed to our care will reach the lady.

J. A. K., Lynn, Mass.—1. Fistiana, $1.25. 2. Charley Lynch has fought sixteen battles, so he informs us. 3. Madden has figured seven times in the P. R., and received forfeit twice from Jim Mace. 4. Reardon has been there seven times.

PHOTOGRAPHER, Ann Arbor, Mich.—Heenan has not yet taken up Mace's challenge. It is his policy, no doubt, to remain quiet until the present difficulty with the powers that be is settled.

PRIVATE, Co. G, 3d Maine—We have understood here that privates were only to be granted to those intending to re-enlist, and that is the reason, perhaps, that your regiment has not been favored.

BASS, N. Y.—If you mean by "black bass" sea bass, they may be caught round about the docks, off Sandy Hook, and near the monument in the lower bay in the spring and fall of the year, and in about from three to five fathoms of water.

A. B. C., Peoria, Ill.—Benjamin fought Sayers twice. 2. The Champion's Bell has not been fought for since Mace and King contended for it. 3. Jim Mace. 4. If no one comes forward in three years it becomes Mace's own property.

F. B. P., Frankfort.—1. Hyer, 155 lbs; Sullivan, 155 lbs. 2. $2000 a side. 3. Unless you are an old hand with the gloves, being of a weak constitution, exercising with Indian clubs would be most beneficial.

LANK, New Haven, Ct.—1. Jim Hughes died on May 24th 1863, quite suddenly; probably of disease of the heart. 2. The same.

A. W., Buffalo.—The rule says the dealer may or may not go alone when his partner assists, but that the question should be settled before commencing the game.

J. D. Cohen.—They should have been weighed before fighting. We don't think the result can now be changed; it will make the loser more cautious in future.

J. K., Terre Haute, Ind.—The fare to California is for first cabin $300, second cabin $225, and third cabin $125. Steamers leave on the 3d, 13th and 23d of each month.

A SUBSCRIBER.—1. We have no recollection of George Seward's time of 100 yards in nine seconds having been beaten. 2. Time has not been regularly kept for a distance less than 100 yards.

H. D., Lomira, Wis.—For a good shot gun address Patrick Mullen, gun maker, Fulton street; or John P. Moore's Sons, No. 204 Broadway, New York.

BOXING.—Prof. Barrett, of the Gymnasium, Market street, above Eighth, Philadelphia, is the best teacher of the art in this city; his terms are, we believe, $10 for a course of lessons.

H. J. R., Washington, D. C.—Our terms are 12 cents per line for each insertion, with 20 per cent off if paid for three months in advance.

SUBSCRIBER, Cincinnati.—1. The better plan would be to draw one card from the dealer's hand. 2. The same. 3. He can play a trump. 4. The dealer scores Jack.

CRICKET, Washington.—1. We cannot say whether either of the "Masceppas" intend visiting your city or not. 2. Eliza Logan is the wife of Mr. George Wood, the Western manager.

J. W. P., Chicago.—For dancing class send to Mr. Roberts, No. 95th street. See his advertisement in this paper.

H. S. M., Philadelphia.—Your "sarcastic lines to a lady" had better be read to her in person.

T. O. M., Heavy Artillery.—Received, but we cannot promise to use it at present.

E. CUTTER, Cleveland, O.—Two copies of "Fistiana" forwarded by mail. Price, $1.25 each.

TICKET OF LEAVE MAN, Baltimore.—The Webb Sisters will not visit your city again for a long time.

BOX.—1. You can stand on the bridge and fish as long as you like. 2. The Prince of Wales was married March 10, 1863.

VERY OLD SUBSCRIBER.—Dr. Valentine Mott's address is No. 69 East 21st street.

E. S., Fort Wood.—We have no better authenticated time than that made by the Persia, viz.: nine days, one hour and a half.

E. V., Shirley Village, Mass.—Omitted by mistake. Corrected this week.

FRANK, Ann Arbor, Mich.—The cost as it now stands will be $3.80 per quarter—or 13 insertions.

JACK.—Tommy Peel is as good as any, but we cannot decide who is the best of the lot.

CLIPPER, Detroit.—We can send you one of our California exchanges if you wish it.

W. BURLEIGH, Boston.—The Boston Theatre is the largest of the two.

FRANKLIN, Springfield, Mass.—The last burning of the National Theatre, Boston, took place March 24th, 1863.

T. P., Trenton, N. J.—Jim Mace holds the Champion's Belt of England.

THE CONNECTICUT, St. Helena's Island, S. C.—Heenan gained first knock down in his fight with King, in the 15th round.

RED WHITE, East Bridgewater, Mass.—A letter addressed to Joe Graham in our care will reach him.

JOHN WEELEY, Chicago.—The gunboat is in New York at present. Do not know when he will start on another cruise.

HARTFORD.—Thirty-eight being the highest throw, won the turkey, notwithstanding all who had chances tied on that throw.

W. MCLEAN.—We have a letter for you.

OLD GOTHAM.—Will be noticed in our next.

ITEM MISER.—Of course will send as soon as we get one.

E. W., Boston.—We don't know where they are.

G. G., Boston.—See answer to "A. W."

N. B. S.—Received. Thanks.

JAS. LEES, Philadelphia, Pa.—"Fistiana" forwarded.

ABOUT THE CLUBMEN.—Several of the daily papers of this city and Brooklyn condemn in severe terms the recent brutal conduct of Inspector Folk and his police in clubbing a number of unresisting people whom they surprised near Astoria. They all maintain that the clubbing was without warrant of law, and that in acting as they did the Brooklyn squad transcended their duties. The Leader, of this city, takes quite a different view of the affair, and handles the assaulted people with much roughness. Here is what John Clancy, the editor, says upon the subject:

"Several of the dailies are denouncing the Police of Kings County for laboring with their clubs a congregation of loafers, thieves and vagabonds gathered together to witness a prize fight. In our judgment the Police only performed their duty in dispersing these brutes by the free use of their clubs. A few more examples of this character will do more to prevent prize fighting than all the enactments on our statute books."

Wonder what Mr. Clancy would say in case the police should club him and his supporters during a political "free fight"? There are full as many loafers, thieves, and vagabonds gathered together at political ward and mass meetings, as there are at prize fights, and they do infinitely more harm, too.

FIFTEEN MILES ON SKATES.—Five gentlemen skated in company from New Baltimore to Albany on Tuesday, 26th ult., a distance of fifteen miles in 51 min.

GREAT EXPLOIT.

THE RAID UPON THE PUGS.

The police of Brooklyn have been making another raid upon the disciples of the King: not the political ring, good reader, but the ring pugilistique. This last surprise party came off near Astoria on the 25th Jan., on the occasion of a little family gathering of the fancy to do honor to a festive meeting between a couple of pugs. The gentlemanly members of the police squad detailed for this special service were to a certain extent successful in their mission, having caught the enemy unawares, and clubbed all who were unable to get away, including several persons who had nothing to do with the affair! We believe the law says that where a riot or disturbance of the peace is apprehended, the authorities shall order the crowd to disperse, and if they refuse, then they shall exercise their forcible authority; but it appears that on the occasion referred to, the police were so anxious to distinguish themselves, and extinguish the innocents, that they went in without giving warning of any sort, and commenced an indiscriminate attack upon all who fell in their clutches. The "enemy" manifested no resistance whatever, although some of the papers will insist that the pugs always go armed. It was a beautiful sight to witness the M. P.'s clubbing unresisting people. It would have done your hearts good to see with what manly courage they knocked down and beat their defenceless prisoners; blood flowed freely and beautifully, and the bruised and mangled heads of the poor pugs gave the best evidence of the skill and valor of the Brooklyn squad when opposed to a surprised and unresisting foe. But either the boys heads were too hard or the policemen's clubs were too light, for not one of the pugs was killed in this dreadful battle. Now, this must be inquired into. If clubs are to be trump, by all means make the clubs of sufficient calibre to kill a man at once, for the pugs might some day or other defend themselves against what they justly consider unlawful assaults, and if the gentlemanly policemen's clubs do not prove effective at the first crack, perhaps the assailants might get worsted. We should like to see the clubs of the brave Brooklyn squad increased in weight, therefore, so as to give the wielders some little chance for their lives. We think a ten or twelve pound club would be most effective in these police raids. If the Commissioners give the gentlemen across the East River authority to club unresisting people, then we demand that they give them heavier clubs hereafter, so that they may do their work more effectually. For the able manner in which the squad battered and bruised the cowardly and unresisting people who fell in their way, they are certainly deserving of some testimonial of our appreciation of their services. Each man of that squad behaved nobly—there was no flinching from the retreating foe, and there was no quarter shown to the unarmed and flying crowd. What a splendid addition that posse would make to the Army of the Potomac. Why any one of the brave squad would prove more than a match for Gen. Lee, and carve the way for the onward progress of our army to Richmond—always provided the rebels made no defence. Why, then, are these valiant men permitted to waste their abilities, as policemen, when they could be of such great service to their country in the army? Let mass meetings be held, and the claims of the Brooklyn braves be urged upon President Lincoln. Now is the time to push this thing to a successful issue. Let no time be lost. Honor to the gallant band who so bravely and courageously clubbed an unresisting crowd at Astoria.

COBURN'S CHALLENGE TO TOM KING.

KING DECLINES.

MACE CHALLENGES COBURN TO FIGHT FOR THE BELT AND $5000. The London Sporting papers give copious extracts from the New York journals touching the King and Heenan fight, and also publish Joe Coburn's challenge to Tom King, which, it will be remembered, was published in the CLIPPER the same week that we gave a report of the "big struggle." In that challenge, Coburn offered King $1000 to fight in Canada. The Sporting Life, in commenting on the challenge, says:—

"However anxious Coburn may be to fight Tom King, he is not likely to be accommodated, for various reasons. In the first place, King has positively asserted that he will not enter the P. R. again; and, in the second place, we are by no means sure that he would not receive such a reception in America as was accorded during the presence of the draft to the niggers. At all events, we want even better authority than 'Manhattan's' that the English hero would meet with an ovation and reception such as he prognosticates. Coburn's challenge, however, is civil and business-like, and we advise King to publish at once a suitable and dignified reply thereto."

The Life should bear in mind that Coburn offered to fight King or Mace in Canada, in the Queen's possessions, so that the English champion would not even have to put foot on United States soil, but could sail from England direct for Quebec. The excuse that King has retired from the ring don't amount to anything, because the same thing was said when he defeated Jim Mace, yet he afterwards fought Heenan.

Coburn's challenge to Jim Mace had not been received in England up to the 16th January, but Mace was out in an offer to meet Coburn in England. The following is the article, as we find it in the Sporting Life of the 16th ult.:—

"Mace, anxious to be first in the field, called upon us yesterday and said his self will be to give another American a chance of obtaining pugilistic honor and reputation. Jim says that as it is well known his friend, Tom King, will fight no more, he will meet Joe Coburn, the Champion of America, for $500 or £1,000 a side and the belt, allowing the American £100 for expenses to come to England. Mace informed us that he would not care to visit the dis-United States, under any circumstances, but most certainly not with intentions of fighting."

Mr. Richardson agrees to find the "show of war," and will guarantee Coburn that the match, if made, shall be properly carried out. Tom King also called upon us yesterday, and in answer to Coburn wishes us to state that he has finally retired from the ring, and that, under the circumstances he can entertain no more challenges from any quarter."

We certainly think that Mace, or King, should for once, at least, cross the big pond, and try their mettle on this continent. We do not ask them to come to New York, or any other part of the United States, but our champion is willing to fight the best man England can produce, in Canada, in Her Majesty's possessions in North America; not only this, but he offers to give the English Champion $1000 to defray his expenses to Canada. There are no draft rioters there, you know, and the Canadians would take proper care that their countrymen should have "fair play," rather fairer play than Heenan met with at Farmborough.

TINKERING.—There are rumors that the country gentlemen at Albany who make laws for New York city, think of doing a little tinkering at the anti-concert hall bill, which was put in force a couple of years ago. Well, if they do no more good than they did by the passage of that law, they had better let the tinkering alone. What has been the result of the "suppression" of concert halls and the pretty waster girls? Why, nothing more or less than the establishment of scores of underground free concert cells, and the substitution of dozens of notorious prostitutes for "pretty waster girls." Broadway is lined with them; you will find them springing up almost every day; in some of them, private apartments are provided for the accommodation of "modest young men" who do not care to visit Mercer street just yet; they are ten times worse than the Mercer street brothels; for these latter hold out no false lights; when a man enters such houses, he goes in with his eyes open, well knowing their character; but these underground institutions are "masked batteries;" they do not open fire until the unvarying visitor is within their toils, and when there is scarcely any chance of escape. There are no "pretty waster girls," if you please, but there are painted and spangled prostitutes present to lure you on step by step, and drag you down to almost certain destruction. What may we expect next, if the Albany tinkers attempt another "reform," when we see the result of their former efforts in the cause of "immorality?" Why, we shall be over-run with basement free concert places, and the competition will be so great that "private apartments" will also be offered their patrons, free. For goodness sake, you country legislators, don't meddle with city affairs any more, or you will make New York one huge brothel.

ABOUT THE CLUBMEN.—Several of the daily papers of this city and Brooklyn condemn in severe terms the recent brutal conduct of Inspector Folk and his police in clubbing a number of unresisting people whom they surprised near Astoria. They all maintain that the clubbing was without warrant of law, and that in acting as they did the Brooklyn squad transcended their duties. The Leader, of this city, takes quite a different view of the affair, and handles the assaulted people with much roughness. Here is what John Clancy, the editor, says upon the subject:

"Several of the dailies are denouncing the Police of Kings County for laboring with their clubs a congregation of loafers, thieves and vagabonds gathered together to witness a prize fight. In our judgment the Police only performed their duty in dispersing these brutes by the free use of their clubs. A few more examples of this character will do more to prevent prize fighting than all the enactments on our statute books."

Wonder what Mr. Clancy would say in case the police should club him and his supporters during a political "free fight"? There are full as many loafers, thieves, and vagabonds gathered together at political ward and mass meetings, as there are at prize fights, and they do infinitely more harm, too.

SUSIE KNIGHT.—We would advise the readers of the CLIPPER to send at once and get this excellent work, as the second edition is nearly out. Price 20 cts. C. Mackay & Co., 81 Nassau street, publishers.

GREAT EXPLOIT.

THE RAID UPON THE PUGS.

The police of Brooklyn have been making another raid upon the disciples of the King: not the political ring, good reader, but the ring pugilistique. This last surprise party came off near Astoria on the 25th Jan., on the occasion of a little family gathering of the fancy to do honor to a festive meeting between a couple of pugs. The gentlemanly members of the police squad detailed for this special service were to a certain extent successful in their mission, having caught the enemy unawares, and clubbed all who were unable to get away, including several persons who had nothing to do with the affair! We believe the law says that where a riot or disturbance of the peace is apprehended, the authorities shall order the crowd to disperse, and if they refuse, then they shall exercise their forcible authority; but it appears that on the occasion referred to, the police were so anxious to distinguish themselves, and extinguish the innocents, that they went in without giving warning of any sort, and commenced an indiscriminate attack upon all who fell in their clutches. The "enemy" manifested no resistance whatever, although some of the papers will insist that the pugs always go armed. It was a beautiful sight to witness the M. P.'s clubbing unresisting people. It would have done your hearts good to see with what manly courage they knocked down and beat their defenceless prisoners; blood flowed freely and beautifully, and the bruised and mangled heads of the poor pugs gave the best evidence of the skill and valor of the Brooklyn squad when opposed to a surprised and unresisting foe. But either the boys heads were too hard or the policemen's clubs were too light, for not one of the pugs was killed in this dreadful battle. Now, this must be inquired into. If clubs are to be trump, by all means make the clubs of sufficient calibre to kill a man at once, for the pugs might some day or other defend themselves against what they justly consider unlawful assaults, and if the gentlemanly policemen's clubs do not prove effective at the first crack, perhaps the assailants might get worsted. We should like to see the clubs of the brave Brooklyn squad increased in weight, therefore, so as to give the wielders some little chance for their lives. We think a ten or twelve pound club would be most effective in these police raids. If the Commissioners give the gentlemen across the East River authority to club unresisting people, then we demand that they give them heavier clubs hereafter, so that they may do their work more effectually. For the able manner in which the squad battered and bruised the cowardly and unresisting people who fell in their way, they are certainly deserving of some testimonial of our appreciation of their services. Each man of that squad behaved nobly—there was no flinching from the retreating foe, and there was no quarter shown to the unarmed and flying crowd. What a splendid addition that posse would make to the Army of the Potomac. Why any one of the brave squad would prove more than a match for Gen. Lee, and carve the way for the onward progress of our army to Richmond—always provided the rebels made no defence. Why, then, are these valiant men permitted to waste their abilities, as policemen, when they could be of such great service to their country in the army? Let mass meetings be held,

THEATRICAL RECORD.

MOVEMENTS, BUSINESS, AND INCIDENTS OF THE THEATRICAL, CIRCUS, MUSICAL, AND MINSTREL PROFESSION.

OUR LETTER BOX.

We have letters for Rodey Maguire, J. E. Green, Frank Wyant, Chas. E. Chase, Miss H. Salisbury, E. T. Blanchmore, Gustave Bidax, D. G. Waldron, Geo. E. Akerly, Miss Sallie Holman, Johnney Mitchell, W. B. Blaisdell, and Sam Sharpley.

TO THE PROFESSION.

The CLIPPER is the great organ of the dramatic and show profession, and our desire is and ever has been to make this department not only useful to the profession, but interesting to the general reader. Through the medium of our little sheet, therefore, the profession can let the whereabouts and business of each other. Drop us a playbill, a newspaper, a line or two of the movements of yourselves, and those associated with you, so that they may reach us by Tuesday, or Monday, at the latest, and the items furnished will appear in this week's issue of the CLIPPER, which is forwarded to agents throughout the country early on Tuesday morning of each week. We charge nothing for recording the movements of our friends, neither do we ask or seek favors of any kind for so doing. We wish to continue the CLIPPER as a reliable organ for the benefit of the profession, and thereby extend the sphere of its usefulness.

CITY SUMMARY.

MONDAY, February 1st, 1861.

"This is the happiest moment of our life," to use the figure language of dubiously happy receivers of complimentaries, services of silver plate, watches, etc. How so? inquires the doubtful reader. Because it affords us a quiet time to hold imaginary converse with our readers; without they're being able to talk back at us, and in that consists the happiness. Snugly stowed away with our own unselfish thoughts, the door barred against all intruders except those who have money to pay us, we seize the mighty pen, which forms the great connecting link between mind and matter, or rather between the mind of man and the manufactures of man, and sling off the multifarious thoughts that crowd the fertile brain of yours truly. We say it is good to have an opportunity to talk at people without they're being able to sass us back. That's a privilege newspaper scribblers have had before almost uninterrupted enjoyment; but the actor people are beginning to hold up their heads a little, and are not afraid to attack us of us.

The dramatic critic of the Daily Times made a desperate assault the other day upon the "Jolly Peddler," now being performed at Niblo's, and while telling a few wholesome truths, worked in a lot of stuff that won't stand fire. Mr. Barney Williams, having no newspaper of his own, replied from the stage, and gave the critic about as good a trouncing as ye gentle assaulter would care to endure. In the end, however, the newspaper man is sure to come off with flying colors, because he can reach thousands, whereas the stage representative can count his hearers only by hundreds. The Times critic obviously wishes all new plays to convey some "heavily moral," done up in two or three cents worth of envelopes, or some such style; but let us tell the gentleman that it won't answer. Managers and actors, like newspaper writers, and publishers, work to make money. They understand the tastes of their patrons, and they endeavor to gratify those tastes. "Rose-dale" would not run more than a week or two at either of the Bowery theatres; neither would "Jack Sheppard" be likely to meet with a very favorable reception at Wallack's. Barney Williams would not draw expenses were he to appear as Sir Peter Teazle or Claude Melnotte, but his "Jolly Peddler" and other Irish dramas crowd the theatre for months. Kate Fisher might attempt the House of the New Bowery, but it would be "for one night only," for the haberdashers could not afford it, while her Mazeppa would last a night after night, night and day, and then be hauled back of the "erry, untaught staid."

Barney and his "wife" are the only ones who attract curiosity hunters to the Museum, but they wouldn't be worth shucks in an underground concert saloon. Mrs. Wood knows that tragedy won't pay at her Olympic, so she attracts crowds with her burlesques. G. L. Fox had nearly four thousand people in the Old Bowery, on the 25th January, to see his new pantomime; with "Married Life," or "The Clandestine Marriage," for an entertainment, no four hundred would have been there. If Beecher were to give up preaching sensation stuff, and come down to the drawing style, his "beloved hearers" would soon reduce his salary, instead of offering him a "prise package" of $5000. Horace Greeley and the Tribune would go to the dogs if they were to drop the nigger; the Herald would go up in a balloon if it stopped publishing murders, prize fights, crime, con cases, and predicting the end of the war by the 4th of July; and the Times people would have to seek again the "elbows of the Mincio," or the "sympathies of youth" if they didn't preach "gauntlet comedy," and dabble in stocks with "bulbs and bears." We all know our own business best, and we endeavor to gratify the tastes of those who patronize us. Our ministers, actors, managers, politicians, publishers, pretty water girls, all work for the flimseys, or filthies, or whatever. They are acrobats, and do some remarkably difficult feats.

Anna Mervyn, the English lady, in our last by a correspondent style himself Ajax—"all his life," as we learn by a racy note in the hand write of the lady. Perhaps some manager losing a fortune by not securing "gentle Annie." Who knows? Communications sent in our care will reach her. Why is Ajax like the owner of a noisy jackson? Because we are told he is.

Look out for the "Young Recruit, or the Battle of Lookout Mountain," a new fair and spectacular pantomime to be brought out at the American Theatre, 444 Broadway, this evening, Feb. 1st, under the direction of brother Matti, not he of piratical renown, but of pantomimic fame. During the piece, the young girls of the establishment will be drilled and put through a number of difficult but beautiful military evolutions.

They've got an awful blower at the Museum, a Tyrolean, who plays on three whistles at once. Harrison, the "Impromptu," is also there.

"Words for the Hour" is the suggestive title of a lecture to be delivered here on the 2d inst. by Miss Anna M. Dickenson. It is also there.

Howe can give such a circus show as he does for such low prices, is a puzzle to us; but he does it. Another change of programme is offered this week, including several new features. On the 5th, a complimentary benefit is to be given to Misses Ida and Angelina, and Master Chas. Sherwood. Howe's Circus is in the way, opposite Spring street.

Geo. Lea's company for the Academy of Music, New Orleans, will sail from here on the 6th inst.

We last week mentioned that Mrs. Nixon had obtained a decree of divorce against Jas. L. Nixon. We now learn that Cubas has instituted proceedings against her husband, Manuel Blas, claiming a divorce on the ground of Manuel's infidelity. Nixon was charged with adultery with Cubas, and now Cubas charges her husband with something similar. Lively times, and no respect shown for the ten commandments.

The Tompkins Minstrels, an amateur organization, gave an entertainment on the 25th Jan., at Dooleyer's Hall, in Third street, to a very large audience. For a first performance the members of the company are said to have done very well. Another performance will be given in three or four weeks.

DRAMATIC.

At the Academy of Music, Albany, N. Y., the "Ticket-of-Leave Man" is to be produced on the 3d inst.

The Metropolitan Theatre, Elmira, N. Y., under the management of Frank Phelps, is doing a good business at present. Last week Kate Denin and W. H. Leake were the stars. George Sheldon has been with the company of late, doing the dancing business, but he has since left the theatre.

The Atheneum, Fort Wayne, Ind., is at present open under the management of M. C. Bradley, with Chas. J. Fife as stage manager. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Linden (late Miss Laura Bentley) were the stars at last advices. Mrs. L. was sustaining the part of Dot in "Cricket on the Hearth."

J. Thompson, the melo-dramatic actor, with his sagacious dogs Hector and Carlo, open at Hamblin's Varieties, Washington, D. C., on Feb. 8th.

Leo Hudson, having concluded her engagement at the Front street Theatre, Baltimore, opens at Allen & Simon's New Theatre, Nashville, Tenn., on Feb. 15th. Western managers wishing to negotiate with this dashingly great card should apply to her agents, Messrs. Conner & Co., 25 West Houston street, New York.

Mrs. D. P. Bowers brought the third week of her Washington engagement to a close on the 30th ult., at Ford's Theatre.

At Grover's Theatre, Washington, Vestvalt brought out "Gamer" last week, and it ran four nights. On the 29th she took a benefit, appearing as Alessandro Masseroni, in the musical drama of "The Brigand," singing the beautiful song of Genie Zittel.

Maggie Mitchell was to have opened at Pike's Opera House, Cincinnati, on the 25th ult., but owing to the "sickness" of Mr. Dickinson, no performance was given. Maggie appeared, however, on the 26th, as Fanchon, and the Zavistowski Troupe appeared in one of their fairy-like terpsichorean festivals. Mr. M. Lingham has retired from the stock company, and Mr. George Aiken is now doing the leading "biz."

The Tremont Theatre, Boston, is still running the "Ticket-of-Leave Man" to the fullest of full houses. Chas. Walcot, Mr. Tony Denier, Harlequin, and Mlle. Martinetti, clown; C. E. Fox, Pantaloons, and Mlle. Merritt, will you lead in prayer?" This is an actual fact. To resume, the old theatre was full, and all was going along merrily, when about 10 o'clock some one cried "fire," and some plastering in one of the circles fell. In a moment all was confusion, and such a getting down stairs you never did see.

The people rushed out in the most approved style, and for a moment it looked like as if a "disaster" would be the result, but good counsels prevailed, and no serious injury was done to any one. There was no cause whatever for the alarm, and in a short time the performed were going on as usual.

The new pantomime was of the greatest success ever achieved, having crowded the house even more, night since it was put on. It is produced in magnificent style, and the last scene is alone worth more than the price of admission. L. Fox is clown; C. E. Fox, Pantaloons, and Mlle. Merritt, will you lead in prayer?" This is an actual fact. To resume, the old theatre was full, and all was going along merrily, when about 10 o'clock some one cried "fire," and some plastering in one of the circles fell. In a moment all was confusion, and such a getting down stairs you never did see.

The Tremont Theatre, Boston, finds the "Ticket-of-Leave Man" a sufficient attraction to fill all the theatre long before the curtain rises. There is a great discussion in Boston about the propriety of Miss Emily Nestoray's dancing "Sally Come Up" in the character of Emily St. Evremond. Many think the lady is superior to G. Swaine Buckley, especially when she dances off the stage.

Adah Isaacs Menken is a name that must henceforth lead the galaxy of those bright particular stars whose rare merit and famous fortune it has been to repel laurels from a generous soil of gold in California. Not only have her dramatic triumphs there far exceeded every precedent in the entire theatrical annals of that State, but her hold upon popular favor seems to strengthen its intensity as her stay is prolonged, until the enthusiasm of the public over her peculiar genius and versatility amounts to something far more notable than any common dramatic "sensation."

Menken ad nutum appears to be the ditta of the whole community as far as theatricals are concerned. During this lady's second engagement at Maguire's Opera House, San Francisco, she appeared as "the bold Dick Turpin." In the early part of the night, and while descending the ex-emporized "run" in the rear-entrance of the theatre, Miss Menken's beautiful horse, "Womack," took a fall, and ran over the poor toes and fingers in trying to reach the new mines. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin are great favorites here, and are attracting very good houses." Mr. R. Clawson is manager, and John T. Caine stage manager. The winter season commenced Dec. 19, with the "Marble Heart."

The following is a list of the company engaged there, in addition to those we have already named:—Madames Woodmansee, M. Bowring, Pratt, Grist, M. Ronney, Roberts, Eldridge, L. Gibson, Miss Alexander, Meers, D. McKenzie, H. B. Clawson, John T. Caine, J. M. Simmons, J. R. Clawson, George M. Othmer, H. K. Whitney, Henry Maiben, John S. Lindsay, E. L. Sloan, W. C. Dunbar, J. B. Kelly, W. Poulter, and Master Harry. On the 2d of January, the "Octofoon" was produced with a capital cast, and all the accessories necessary to give clat to the entertainment.

They get up very flowery dramatic notices in Baltimore, and say immensely pretty things about the female Mazeppa and dancing-girls. One of the critics in that city thus speaks of Leo Hudson:—"But who can behold a 'pearl' and not feel its bright, glowing surface, and its cream-tinted veins, flowing like the flowery stream that runs through scented groves of cinnamon, filling the mind with intoxicating fragrance. Readers, fail not to mark this paragon of beauty and talent."

The critic must be an inveterate rogue, for by his own showing he cannot behold the beauties he speaks of without feeling their glowing surface.

Mr. Man. Fe. 1st.—The Clipper, in a first rate notice of Miss Jennie Allen, a new candidate at Manager L. C. Clawson's establishment—our critical friend thus "soliloquizes":—"the most delicate shading of the tender emotions, soft, gently and sweetly gives life to the most admirable pictures, silver-edging the clouds with hues that dazzle with brilliancy, which are so transparent that a body of winged messengers are observed flying with the golden hour glass of time." He means to say that Jennie is a "zen of purest ray serene," or, to come to a still finer point, a "good egg."

McKean Buchanan was at last accounts running the Metropolitan, Sacramento, and he thus cases his conscience for giving Sunday performances. Harken unto him:—"Sunday being an inviolate day, we are bound to observe it, and the manager of the theatre, in giving Sunday performances, is bound to do the same."

On Wednesday, Jan. 23d, Carl Anschutz again essayed the experiment of giving the Brooklynites a feast of German Opera, and despite the fact of his previous disappointments, by which he had incurred the displeasure of his patrons on the other side of the river, his efforts were crowned with a greater degree of success than he had reason to expect. The Opera presented was "Le Dame Blanche," by Boieldieu, and in it Herr Habelmann, the new tenor of the troupe, and Herr Hermann, the new basso, made their first bow to a Brooklyn audience, both making a decidedly favorable impression. The overture had commenced and general expectation was on tip-toe, when Mr. Howard, ye musical and dramatic critic of the Times, stepped forward and announced the non-arrival of the costumes, requesting to know, at the same time, whether the Opera should go on with the performers en travestie. Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

On Wednesday, Jan. 23d, Carl Anschutz again essayed the experiment of giving the Brooklynites a feast of German Opera, and despite the fact of his previous disappointments, by which he had incurred the displeasure of his patrons on the other side of the river, his efforts were crowned with a greater degree of success than he had reason to expect. The Opera presented was "Le Dame Blanche," by Boieldieu, and in it Herr Habelmann, the new tenor of the troupe, and Herr Hermann, the new basso, made their first bow to a Brooklyn audience, both making a decidedly favorable impression. The overture had commenced and general expectation was on tip-toe, when Mr. Howard, ye musical and dramatic critic of the Times, stepped forward and announced the non-arrival of the costumes, requesting to know, at the same time, whether the Opera should go on with the performers en travestie. Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than the third of the costumes had arrived, for they were not in anything but the dress of Scotch peasants, which they were supposed to be, the scene of the opera being laid in Auld Scotland.

Consent being given, the curtain went up, and the opera was about being commenced when the regular habiliments of the troupe arrived, and a temporary suspension took place, the orchestra having to play the overture a second time in response to calls to that effect. Judging from the dresses of half the chorus singers on the occasion, we should say that not more than

THEATRICAL RECORD.

Continued from Page 339.

DRAMATIC.

At the Opera House, Norfolk, Va., last week, Miss Thorne commencing there on the 28th ult., as Mrs. Kee Mudgeon, in "California Diamond," and the reception vouchsafed her was most enthusiastic. Brougham's burlesque of "Pocahontas" has been the chief attraction, preceded on the 26th inst. by the "Uncle Tom," and on the 27th by "The Child of the Regiment." Miss Thorne, personating Hester Grazebrook in the former, and Josephine in the latter, with Miss Gernock as Guillot; their brilliant reception being fully warranted, as the marouette were most effectively rendered. Miss Thorne, as Pocahontas, and Miss German, as Captain John Smith, were fully equal to the requirements of their parts, and obtained the most enthusiastic plaudits. Mrs. Berrill's "Krao-kan-be and Oates' Powhatan" are entitled to commendation for their excellence.

Miss Lucille Western has met with such success at the Walnut, Philadelphia, with her play of "East Lynne," that it will be continued the present week.

Edwin Forrest is this week at the Boston Theatre, supported by John McCullough, Miss Ponson, and Mrs. J. H. Allen. Bandmann will appear on the off nights.

Bea Bar opens the St. Charles, New Orleans, on Feb. 15th, with a dramatic company. Mary Gladstone is the first star. The lady sailed on the 27th ult., in order to "be in time." She will during her engagement produce her "Miriam the Deserter," and will probably continue to do the piece as often as she pleases, "other people's objections notwithstanding."

The Leavenworth Theatre was burned down on the 25th Jan. The company had disbanded after the reduction of salaries by the manager, and became embroiled in a quarrel. Cards explanatory were published on both sides, finally ending in the suing of Chaplin, leading man, by Manager Addis, for libel. Case not made out, and charge not proven. Chaplin was discharged, much to the delight of the whole community.

Mr. McVicker has commenced a trial suit against the proprietor of the Chicago Times. The objectionable paragraph, upon which the libel is based, is as follows:—"With the single exception of Mr. Evans, there is not an actor or actress on the stage that can properly fill any part or decently portray any character. The management has but one idea, and that smacks so much of the very low tavern humor, that the respectable portions of the community are now all acquaintanceship with the establishment. In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De Lascours.

Miss Lizzie Anderson has withdrawn from the Howard Atheneum, Boston.

The Richings Opera Troupe will sing at Springfield, Mass., on the 8th and 9th inst., and Hartford 10th.

Mr. E. F. Keach is at present quite ill in Boston, with quick consumption, and has been given over by consulting physicians.

Mr. Grover commenced operations at the New Chestnut, Philadelphia, on the 26th ult., but his selection of the "Veteran" for an opening piece seems to have been unfortunate, the play not meeting with much favor, and creating little or no enthusiasm.

The company cannot be fairly judged by their respective delineations in the "Veteran," and the press of that city speaks of them as kindly as possible under the circumstances.

In the same way good actors have declined engagements at this place, in consequence of the peculiar odor that clings to it as an establishment. The result of this is, that Chicago has been defrauded of opportunities of witnessing real talent, which might have been otherwise obtained."

The following is a list of the company engaged by Laura Keene for the opening of the Washington Theatre on the 1st inst.:—John Dyott, Peters, Levick, Burgess, T. Baker, Boyd, Grout, Palmer, Billie, and Ware; Mrs. Tyrell; Miss Carman and Miss Stevens.

At the Paducah (Ky.) Theatre business is reported as being good. "The Sea of Ice" continues to be the attraction, and is drawing most excellent houses. Miss M. Marietto is favorably spoken of in the part of Louise De

AMUSEMENTS.

OLYMPIC THEATRE.
Lesser and Manager..... MRS. JOHN WOOD.
Director..... J. H. SELWYN.

MONDAY, February 1st, 1864.
The great success which has attended the production of the present most laughable and attractive Programmes, and the crowded houses having presented a variety of the patrons of the Olympic from witnessing it, the production of several novelties has been postponed to allow for its continuance.

The performances every evening will commence with the most successful comic play produced this season, entitled

A BULL IN A CHINA SHOP, After which, for the third week, the great Burlesque of

MAZZEPPE: OR, THE FIERCE UNTAMED STEED, which has been received every night for the last two weeks with shouts of laughter, and in which

MR. FRANK DREW and MRS. JOHN WOOD appear.

Will shortly be produced, a new Comedy entitled

SILKEN FETTERS.

Also, the great Burlesque, entitled

ILL TREATED ILL TROVATORE.

Doors open at 7; performance to commence at 7:30.

Box book open from 9 to 4. Seats secured three days in advance.

MISS LUCILLE WESTERN.

This beautiful young, able, and versatile Actress is now performing at the

WALNUT STREET THEATRE, PHILADELPHIA,

HER MOST BRILLIANT ENGAGEMENT, and the most successful ever performed by ANY ARTIST

who has at any time appeared in the

CITY OF PHILADELPHIA.

Each and every night

DENSE CROWDS ARE TURNED AWAY, unable to gain admission even to the lobbies half an hour after the doors are opened.

EVERY AVAILABLE SPACE IS OCCUPIED, and hundreds crowd the lobbies and passages, notwithstanding the extra means provided to accommodate the public with seats.

THE ORCHESTRA

OCCUPIES A PRIVATE BOX,

having kindly given up their customary places to the eager public.

HUNDREDS OF FASHIONABLE LADIES have been obliged to occupy the seats in the family circle.

The present engagement closes on Saturday, February 13, after which time

MISS WESTERN

will play a brief engagement in each of the principal neighboring cities, prior to her

DEPARTURE FOR CALIFORNIA.

Communications may be addressed to

J. H. MEAD, or

ALBERT CASSIDY, Agent,

Walnut Street Theatre.

43

CUMBERLAND OPERA HOUSE,
CUMBERLAND, MD.

open every night with

BOB EDWARDS' GREAT COMBINATION TROUPE.

Mrs. Julia Edwards, Miss Louise, Miss Fanny Thompson, Miss Lola Melnot, Mrs. Oldfield, Bob Edwards, Johnny Redden, Dick Edwards, John Rushton, Harry Andrews, W. A. Downie, T. J. Oldfield, Prof. McHenry, J. C. Young, and a splendid Brass Band and numerous auxiliaries, forming a Grand Combination Troupe.

Admission 50 cents. Talent always wanted for long or short engagements. Address EDWARDS & FARQUHAR,

Proprietors and Managers,

Cumberland Opera House, Cumberland, Md.

43-1*

CARD — I beg most respectfully to caution the public and the profession generally against an arrant imposter who styles himself Professor J. M. McAllister, son of the elder McAllister. This bogus individual, who probably does not know his own father, but who for pecuniary gain attempts to prostitute the name of my uncle, the late Professor James McAllister, recently made an attempt to travel through Canada, but as his peculiar performances did not suit the Canadians, he skedaddled back to Rochester, and decidedly extinguished himself in that city, there being only twenty-one persons to see his second entertainment. I need hardly add that my uncle died in Keokuk, Iowa, in 1857, and left two children, neither of which are yet eleven years old. (Signed) WILLIAM J. MCALLISTER.

The original and only fair named WM. J. MCALLISTER, the younger, nephew of the late PROF. J. MCALLISTER, has lately returned from Europe, and is now on a

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

WESTERN TOUR.

He will visit the Eastern cities during the coming Summer.

Look out for his bills.

43-1*

R. F. ULLMAN, Agent.

THE BANJO TAUGHT by FRANK B. CONVERSE, upon correct musical principles. Pupils can receive their lessons at their residences, if desired. Choice and properly constructed Banjos selected for purchasers. Refers by permission, to the following music dealers: W. A. Pond & Co., 547 Broadway; Wm. Hall & Son, 543 Broadway; and S. T. Gordon, 538 Broadway, and the minstrel profession generally. Address 339 Fourth Avenue.

43-1*

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION.
VARIETIES, MUSIC HALL, YORK, PA.

HORNER & STAUB..... Proprietors, The above place is now being fitted up as a first class Music Hall, and will be open to the public on or about the 10th of February. Performers of acknowledged ability desiring good engagements will address, stating their salary and line of business,

M. GABRIEL HARRISON, Lessee.

Rent Fifty Dollars a night. Direct Box Office.

43-1*

STUDLEY'S PANORAMA OF DOCTOR KANE'S ARCTIC EXPEDITION in search of Sir John Franklin, and SCENES OF THE REVOLUTION, together with a Double Wagon, will be SOLD at a sacrifice. The Panorama covers over 800 feet of canvas. Apply to

JAS. CONNER & CO., 25 West Houston street, New York.

43-1*

MR. J. THOMPSON, the Melo-Dramatic Actor, with his celebrated Dogs HECTOR and CARLO, have been engaged to open at HAMILTON'S VARIETIES, Washington, D. C., Feb. 8th, "Jack Sheppard," "Carrier and his Dogs," etc. Managers wishing to engage Mr. Thompson will apply to JAMES CONNER & CO., 25 West Houston street, New York.

43-1*

MISS KATE FISHER, the renowned Protean and Melo-Dramatic Actress, now in her fifth week at the New BOWYAN THEATRE, was presented with a magnificent set of Jewelry, valued at $500, on her second benefit night. Miss Fisher will remain two weeks longer, and will be open for engagements for Feb. 15th. Managers will address her Sole Agents,

JAS. CONNER & CO., 25 West Houston street, New York.

43-1*

LEO HUDSON, the celebrated Equestrienne and Melo-Dramatic Actress, and Queen of Female Mazeppas. This great Star having played four weeks to the best business ever done at the FRONT STREET THEATRE, Baltimore, will open at ALLEN & SIMON'S NEW THEATRE, Nashville, Feb. 15. Western managers wishing to secure this lady, with her celebrated Horse SENSATION, will apply to her Sole Agents, JAMES CONNER & CO., 25 West Houston street, N. Y.

43-1*

MARIE ZOE, the celebrated French and Spanish Dancer, and Melo-Dramatic Actress, having concluded her third star engagement at ALLEN & SIMON'S NEW THEATRE, Nashville, and DUFFIELD & FLYNN'S THEATRE within the last two months, will open at the METROPOLITAN THEATRE, Davenport, Iowa, on or about the 1st Feb., where she will produce the "French Spy," "Wizard Skirt," "Flying Dutchman," etc. Managers having rights for Mlle. Zoe to fill, will address

JAS. CONNER & CO., 25 West Houston street, N. Y.

43-1*

GAYETY MUSIC HALL, ALBANY.—Sole Proprietor, SAM FITZPATRICK: Stage Manager, J. TREWOLLA. The Gayety is doing a fine business, and has a first class company, consisting of the following:—Miss Fanny Gilmore, Miss Constantine, Miss Mason, Miss Rose Laforet, Miss Matilda, the Ross Sisters, Charles Lewis, J. Trewolla, Joe English, Harry Wharfe, Mast. Dimond, Mast. Reddy, Hughes, T. Pennington, Alfred Friby, Charles Hamlin. Talent can command a steady engagement at the Gayety.

BOWERS & PRENDERGAST'S MINSTRELS.

WILL TRAVEL FOR A SHORT SEASON.

Grand Combination of the Leading Members of the ETHIOPIAN PROFESSION.

E. BOWERS, T. B. PRENDERGAST, Managers.

43-1*

AMUSEMENTS.

SIBLO'S GARDEN.
Lessee and Manager..... MR. WM. WHEATLEY.

MONDAY, FEB. 1ST, 1864.

And every evening till further notice.

Brilliant and enthusiastic success of Chas. Gaylor's NEW IRISH DRAMA.

Acknowledged by houses crowded from parquet to ceiling, to be the greatest triumph achieved for years.

MR. AND MRS. BARNEY WILLIAMS.

In their life-like portraiture of Irish Peasant Life,

THE CONNIE SOOGAH.

Is now crowding by far the largest Theatre in the country.

The Scenery is all new, and a fac simile of the original.

Appropriate Music, Songs, and Dances, throughout the piece.

It is confidently claimed that THE CONNIE SOOGAH, has never been surpassed in either Europe or America.

Friday evening, Feb. 5th, first benefit this season of

MRS. BARNEY WILLIAMS.

Seats secured at the box office one week in advance.

Doors open at 7; commence at 7:30 o'clock.

43-1*

HOWE'S GREAT CIRCUS.
199 and 201 BROADWAY.

PERFORMANCES EVERY EVENING,

AND WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

AN ENTIRE CHANGE OF BILL, FOR THIS WEEK.

LAST WEEK OF THE SHERWOOD FAMILY.

CLOWNS,

SAM STICKNEY and BOBBY WILLIAMS.

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 5TH,

JOINT BENEFIT

TO

MISSES IDA & AMELIA and MASTERS CHARLES

SHERWOOD.

A number of

EXCELLENT PERFORMERS

have already tendered their services for the occasion, and

WILL APPEAR.

Further particulars in daily papers.

Admission, 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

Private Box seats, 50 cents.

Commences at 2½ and 7½.

43-1*

CIRCUS.
BROADWAY AMPHITHEATRE,
485 BROADWAY.

Engagement of the

GREAT ARAB TROUPE.

ARABS!

ARABS!

ARABS!

ARABS!

ARABS!

Comprising twelve REAL BEDOUIN ARABS, who will appear every evening, and on WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY Afternoons, in conjunction with Madame LOUISE TOURNIAIRE and the entire

MAMMOTH COMBINATION

of Star Riders, Acrobats, Clowns, and Voltigeurs.

43-1*

CANTERBURY MUSIC HALL,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

GEORGE LEA..... Proprietor

OPEN EVERY NIGHT,

WITH THE STRONGEST ARRAY OF TALENT ever witnessed in any similar place of entertainment in the world.

Patronized by Senators, Representatives of the Cabinet, and military celebrities, and considered to be the

BEST PATRONIZED

PLACE OF ENTERTAINMENT in the United States.

CROWDED NIGHTLY.

An entirely New Programme every night.

THE BEST BALLET TROUPE IN AMERICA.

Opera, Drama, Spectacle, Ballet,

Ethiopian Minstrels,

AMUSEMENTS.

TO ADVERTISERS.

We call the attention of Managers and Professionals who wish to avail themselves of the extensive circulation of the New York Clipper, The Theatrical Organ of America, to make known their business, wants, etc., to the following schedule of rates for advertising:

Twelve cents per line for each and every insertion; for dramatic notices from other papers, incorporated in our summary, 12 cents per line; a liberal deduction, will, however, be made for advertisements when paid for three or six months in advance. Day of publication, Tuesday of each week.

Communications to insure attention in the issue for that week, should reach us by Monday morning, at latest, or Saturday if possible.

VAN AMBURGH & CO.'S
MENAGERIE,
GREAT MORAL EXHIBITION,
AND
EGYPTIAN CARAVAN.

HYATT FROST, MANAGER.

Nos. 539 and 541 BROADWAY,
(Between Prince and Spring streets.)Open from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. Admission 25 cents. No half price.
Performances at 11 A.M., 3 and 8½ P.M.Twelfth successful week of this superbly constructed PALACE OF ZOOLOGICAL WONDERS.It contains animals and birds of every variety, many of which are very rare, and several that were never before on exhibition in America.

A LIVE GIRAFFE.

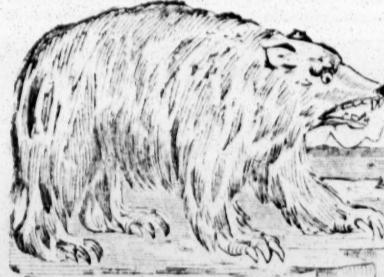

Nearly 14 feet high, the only one on this continent.
The great difficulty of keeping this animal alive in this climate (it being very short lived) makes it one of the greatest attractions of the animal world.

A PAIR OF WHITE PEACOCKS,
recently imported from Germany—white as the driven snow—deserve particular attention, and are the delight and admiration of ALL LOVERS OF NATURAL HISTORY.

A ROYAL BENGAL TIGER.

of immense proportions and extreme ferocity, securely caged, and visible at all hours. Of all the animals of the cat species that inhabit either the old or the new world, this is the most fearful; and, from its insatiable thirst for blood, it destroys when in its native jungles, every thing that comes within its reach, without discrimination.

THREE WHITE POLAR BEARS.

of large size, captured in the Arctic, are now to be seen. This is the only animal that by being placed in the coldest climate, grows to a larger size than those that live in the temperate zones. All other species of animated nature diminish in size as they approach the North Pole. It has been seen on a piece of floating ice one hundred miles at sea, subsisting on fish, obtained by diving. It is an expert swimmer, and when diving in pursuit of fish, seldom loses its scaly prey.

SOUTH AMERICAN TAPIR.

A Pachidermatous mammal, very rare. The inmost recesses of dense forests are the chosen haunts of this animal. It is nocturnal in its habits, sleeping or remaining quiet during the day, and at night seeking its food, which in its natural state consists of shoots of trees, buds, wild fruit, &c. It is a powerful animal, and every thing in the underwood of the forest gives way at its call.

UPWARDS OF TWO HUNDRED RARE BIRDS

And animals are here congregated, and others constantly arriving.

The performances consist of a variety of exercises by Elephants, Ponies, Monkeys, Mules, Lions, Tigers, Leopards, &c.

The morning entertainment is especially designed FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN.

This institution, the pride of Naturalists, is unequalled in GRANDEUR, MAGNITUDE, AND MAGNIFICENCE, by any other exhibition on this continent.

Here the mind may revel in an intellectual feast. Instruction and amusement are harmoniously blended in one. It is the only pure and correct school where

THE GREAT BOOK OF NATURAL HISTORY

Can be successfully unlocked, studied, and defined.

It furnishes
KNOWLEDGE FOR THE WORLD, AND SCHOOL FOR THE MILLION.

48

INTERESTING TO MANAGERS AND AGENTS OF TRAVELING SHOWS, EXHIBITIONS, MINSTRELS, &c., &c.THE ROCHESTER DAILY EVENING EXPRESS is the favorite journal among the amusement loving public of Rochester and vicinity.Connected with the paper is an extensive JOB PRINTING establishment, and Showmen are furnished with Posters, Programmes, Show Cards, Tickets, &c., at reasonable rates.

Showmen patronising the Express will find that ample attention will be given to their entertainments in the local columns, the best medium of advertising.

AMUSEMENTS.

BRYANTS' OPERA HOUSE,
Mechanics' Hall, 472 Broadway, above Grand street.
BRYANT BROTHERS, Proprietors. JOHN SIMPSON, Treasurer.
WINANS and BUCHANAN, Usheers. A. BOSS, Officer.
SEVENTH YEAR OF THE ORIGINAL WORLD-REKNOWNED
BRYANT'S MINSTRELS,
THE EXCELSIOR TROUPE OF THE WORLD.

The Company is composed of the following Talented Artists:—
DALE BRYANT, NELSE SEYMORE,
DAVE REED, J. B. SIVORI,
GEORGE S. FOWLER, FRANK LESLIE,
RODIN HOWARD, J. W. HILTON,
T. GETTINS, JAMES MORRISON, JAMES GARATAGUA, G. S. CONNOR,
W. L. HOBBS, DAN EMMETT, and
W. L. HOBBS, LITTLE MAC.

In a new variety of Songs, Dances, Burlesques, Plantation scenes, &c. For particulars, see bills of the day.
Tickets of Admission 25 cents. 42-12

CIRCUS, BROADWAY AMPHITHEATRE, 485 Broadway.
L. B. LENT, Manager.
BRILLIANT AND DIVERSIFIED PERFORMANCES

EVERY EVENING.

And
On WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY AFTERNOONS,
On WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY AFTERNOONS,
introducing the world renowned Equestrian,
MADAME LOUISE FOURNAIRE,
the great Gymnast of the day.
THE SPANOLA BROTHERS,
STICKNEY, THE SOMERSET RIDER, and the most splendid combination of Equestrians, Clowns, Gymnasts, Acrobats, Volteurs and Equilibrists, ever brought together in the United States.
NUMEROUS ATTRACTIVE NOVELTIES are in active preparation. 42-12

MISS KATE FISHER.
THE BRILLIANT, BEAUTIFUL
EQUESTRIENNE and PROTEAN ACTRESS,
THE MAZEPPO OF THE WORLD, is now in the

FIFTH WEEK
of her performances, fulfilling the most successful engagement ever known in the NEW BOWERY THEATRE. During this engagement a larger number of people have assembled nightly to witness her performances than ever was known before to collect in any Theatre in the United States. Her engagement there is pronounced to be

THE GREAT ACHIEVEMENT OF THE AGE.
During the acts MISS FISHER makes the ENTIRE CIRCUIT OF THE BOXES,
And ascends to the very TOP OF THE THEATRE.

The dress worn by MISS KATE FISHER,
THE GREAT WESTERN STAR,
in Mazeppa alone, cost over
TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The Lady has been called before the curtain between every act, and received with thunderous applause.

HER ORIGINAL FEAT,
the fight around the dress circle, strapped to the back of her flying steed, is pronounced to be

THE MOST DARING AND THRILLING ACT.

Ever performed in New York.
MISS FISHER has also added to her already extensive repertorize, several new plays written expressly for her by some of the most popular dramatists of the day; among which will be found the great and original Equestrian Drama, in four acts, written by W. B. English, entitled

MIKE MARTIN.

MISS FISHER has the exclusive right of Mr. English's celebrated Drama of THE THREE FAST MEN, in which she stands unrivalled, and her new Protean and Equestrian Drama, written expressly for her by John F. Poole, Esq., entitled THE FEMALE AMERICAN SPY; or, SCENES IN THE GREAT AMERICAN REBEL
LION. 43-

AMERICAN THEATRE,
444 BROADWAY,
THE GRAND RESORT OF THE METROPOLIS

A Succession of Crowded Houses Great
BUTLER'S
GREAT COMBINATION TROUPE,
Every Night.

The most unanimous tokens of approval.

The Press and Public,
Unit in declaring it

THE GREAT VARIETY THEATRE OF THE AGE.

The company is perfection in all its details.

THE MAMMOTH ETHIOPIAN TROUPE.

THE GREAT PANTOMIMIC TROUPE.

THE SPLENDID BALLET TROUPE.

In short, all that goes to make up

THE GIGANTIC COMPANY OF THE 19TH CENTURY.

An Entire Change of Programme Every Week.

R. W. BUTLER, Manager.

MONS LA THORNE, Stage Manager.

J. AMERMANN, Treasurer.

PAUL BRILLIANT, Ballet Master.

F. VAN OLKER, Musical Director. 42-12

THE LEADING MODEL TROUPE OF THE AGE.

T W E N T Y - F O U R
BRILLIANT ETHIOPIAN STARS,

Defying and far exceeding all competition not even excepting soft
IRON CLAD MINSTRELS.

THE WORLD OUTDONE

By the famous and ever popular

DUPREZ & GREEN'S MINSTRELS,

BURLESQUE OPERA TROUPE AND BRASS BAND.

The largest, oldest and most complete Troupe ever organized and brought before the public, introducing four unequalled Comedians in the persons of Charley Reynolds, Lew Benedict, J. E. Green and H. C. Williams.

A MAMMOTH ORCHESTRA

of Fourteen Artistic Musicians, each one being a soloist and master of his peculiar instrument.

THE LION CHAMPION QUARTETTE

of the nineteenth century, composed of the renowned Signer

Gustavo Bidaux, J. E. Green, Edwin Holmes, and Gonsalvo

Bishop, admitted by all good judges and critics to be the best

Quartette ever heard in the profession.

A BRASS BAND OF SIXTEEN PIECES,

Led by Alphonse Bergeron, the Royal Cornetist of Canada, pronounced to be the most extensive and finest Band traveling.

The whole of the above combination of talent appear in an original and

MAMMOTH ENTERTAINMENT,

nightly, before crowded houses—in many instances hundreds of people are turned away from the doors.

The largest Halls in the country will not hold the immense audiences who rush to see and hear this unapproachable organization.

THE GIGANTIC POSTER

used for advertising by this Company is the most magnificent and gorgeous piece of design and artistic work ever seen.

It is fourteen feet high and twenty-five feet long, worked in fine colors, being the most costly (and nineteen sheets larger than any bill ever before printed in the world, and which cost nearly two thousand dollars. The first two of these Posters were put up in New York, in the Central Park, for the public to gaze on and feast in Printer's Ink to their heart's content. It covers nearly four hundred square feet surface. Large Mammoth Boards are erected at great expense in every city to put up this ornament, and every board is an enormous and look upon it with perfect admiration as such an enormous enterprise.

The Troupe are again on an extensive tour through the Eastern Country, just before their departure for the Canadas, the Great West and the South.

For full particulars see programmes of the day.

On the arrival at each city the Brass Band will march from the depot to the hotel.

CHAS. H. DUPREZ.

A. S. PRENTISS, 1 Agents.

43-

YANKEE LOCKE, the BEST and ONLY ACKNOWLEDG-EDGE REPRESENTATIVE OF ANOTHER PEUARLARIES

NOW UPON THE STAGE. Mr. Locke, living but recently returned to the United States, after an absence of two years on the Pacific Coast, during which time he has played in all the principal cities and towns of California, Washington and Nevada Territories, is now prepared to negotiate with managers for engagements for one or two weeks, the first to commence on or about the 1st of March, 1867. All letters addressed to

G. E. LOCKE,

Yankee Comedian,

Lowell, Mass.

will receive immediate attention. 42-31

A MUSEUM OF CURIOSITIES.

Similar to the old

TROY OR ST. LOUIS MUSEUM'S COLLECTIONS, is wanted by the subscriber. Parties wishing to dispose of such, may send terms of purchase with full description, to

CLARK T. AMES,

Showman,

New Orleans, La.

Opposite Jackson Square.

42-31

FOX'S CASINO,
CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

THE ONE GREAT MUSIC HALL

42-31

Artists of acknowledged ability can invariably find good engagements by applying as above, personally or by letter.

CHRIS. NORRIS, Business Manager.

42-31

W. N. SMITH, Stage Manager.

42-31